Special Offer

Well October turned out to be really busy! I have been having fun using my embroidery machine to create Halloween collars for my niecelets and I think they liked them! Yeah!

Now on to more serious news—I am offering my pattern of the Angel Door Topper

As featured in October issue of Create and Decorate, the pattern hand drawn on primitive linen for only $48.75 plus shipping. That is 25% off!!! This is only for hand drawn, no wool. Of course you can get the kit for $125.00 plus shipping.

Perfect for the holidays, or all year and a great gift for that special someone.

Winter Blessings
December Create & Decorate

Speaking of the holidays, time to get started! They are fast approaching, the cooler weather is here, perfect for staying in and do some rug hooking. Take advantage of my special offer or cruise my website, my ebay or my etsy for projects and finished pieces. Also, on the 10th of November and December you can go to pfattmarketplace.com to find wonderful art from my Pfatt sisters and myself. Worth checking out!

I think this is my last newsletter for the year, maybe not, in either case, I wish you the best and happiest of holidays!

Hitting the design board, so watch for some of my newest ones on future issues of Create and Decorate, The holiday and December issues are out, so the next one will be the February issue with a specially designed rug hooking project!

Happy Holidays!!!! Jo and Lacey Jane
