

Newsletter

News and musings.....

Wow! April is here and so was Easter! Took me by surprise, how about you? Hope the bunny came hopping over!

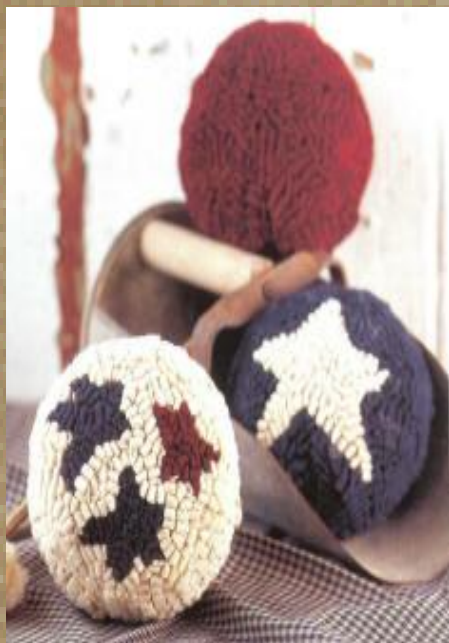

Coupla new things happening.....

First—Lacey Jane Primitives has been invited to participate in a Hook-In in Houston, Texas. Sounds like a fun event as I have never been to a Hook-In before. I am bringing my woolies and kits. And I designed a rug for their club!

And I am being interviewed by a writer for the Country Lanes portion of Create and Decorate. It will be in the October 2010 issue—what an exciting time!

And lastly, I have been working on new dye recipes for wool. This is a specialized wool dyeing, I will be using veggies and stuff that grows around here! I can't wait to get to my dye pots....

Happy Spring! Jo and Lacey Jane

As a celebration to Spring! I am offering the Patriotic Rag Balls Kit—a special just for you!

The kit contains: Uncut wool for three balls, 19" x 30" Monks Cloth, Paper Pattern

And

The newsletter price is: 23.00 plus shipping

The website price is: 30.25 plus shipping (soon will be $40.00!)

Email me and I will send you an invoice....Please don't order from website as it is not set up for the discount. What a fun kit to celebrate with! Quick and easy as well